Ministry of Defence

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

New Delhi, the 23rd December 1968

S.R.O. 5.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 191 of the Army Act, 1950 (46 of 1950), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Army Rules, 1954, namely:—

1. These Rules may be called the Army (—— Amendment) Rules, 1968
2. In the Army Rules 1954, before rule 14, the following rule shall be inserted, namely:—

“13-A. Termination of service of an officer by the Central Government on his failure to qualify at an examination or course:—

- (1) When an officer does not appear at or, having appeared fails to qualify, at the retention examination or promotion examination or any other basic course or examination within the time or extended time specified in respect of that examination or course, the Chief of the Army Staff shall call upon the officer to show cause why he should not be compulsorily retired or removed from the service.
- (2) In the event of the explanation being considered by the Chief of the Army Staff to be unsatisfactory, the matter shall be submitted to the Central Government for orders, together with the officer's explanation and the recommendation of the Chief of the Army Staff as to whether the offer should be—

(a) called upon to retire; or

(b) called upon to resign.

- (3) The Central Government, after considering the explanation, if any, of the officer and the recommendation of the Chief of the Army Staff, may call upon the officer to retire or resign, and on his refusing to do so, the officer may be compulsorily retired or removed from the service on pension or gratuity, if any, admissible to him".
